xii) Late fee for not collecting Original Registration Certificates of MBBS / Post Graduate qualifications beyond the period of three months @ Rs.500/- per month.

The General Body also decided to increase the fee for CME accreditation, i.e. conducting CMEs / Workshops / Conferences as shown below:

xii) For One day programme: Rs.5,000/-, for two days programme: Rs.10,000/- and three days programme / State Conferences: Rs.15,000/-, National Conference: Rs.20,000/-.

In the case of CMEs conducted by Dr. NTR UHS, Zonal CMEs conducted by various departments of Government Medical Colleges and Zonal CMEs conducted by AP Medical Council in the three regions of the State, there will be waiver of CME accreditation fee.

The guidelines issued earlier for accreditation of CME programme, it is the obligation of organizers of CME etc., to invite the Chairman, APMC / Chairman, CME Committee/Members nominated by APMC.

A banner should be displayed at the place of programmes depicting that credit hours were accorded by AP Medical Council. A list of doctors attended CME etc., is to be furnished to APMC and it should also be ensured that the said list shall be attested by the members attended the CME programme on behalf of AP Medical Council.

If any organization submitted application in March for conducting CMEs in April/May shall pay the difference of fee enhanced irrespective of the fact that CME credit hours were already accorded to them.
